CONVOCATORIA DE AYUDAS A LA INVESTIGACIÓN CÁTEDRA ASISA-UdL “SALUD, EDUCACIÓN Y CALIDAD DE VIDA” AÑO 2026

This call aims to promote R&D&I activities in the field of research in health, education and quality of life, within the framework of the Fundación ASISA-UdL Chair “Health, Education and Quality of Life”, established between Fundación ASISA and the University of Lleida.

The call regulates the procedure for awarding financial aid, under the principles of publicity, objectivity and competitive selection, for the development of excellent research projects related to the Chair’s priority research lines.

The call has a total budget of 7,500 euros and will fund three research projects, with an allocation of 2,500 euros each. Each project will be led by one or two principal investigators, who will be responsible for carrying out the proposed activities, and must be completed within one calendar year from the awarding of the grant. The call may be declared fully or partially void if no projects are selected, or the partial amount of the grants may be modified without exceeding the total budget allocated.

The priority research lines for this call are as follows:

- Promotion of active and healthy ageing, and/or intergenerational relations, in their socioeconomic, cultural and/or educational dimensions.
- Health habits and shared responsibility in health through lifestyles and health promotion.
- Vulnerable groups within the framework of the social determinants of health.

Applications must be submitted in PDF format by email to the UdL-ASISA Chair (catedrasaluteducacioqualitatdevida@udl.cat [<mailto:catedrasaluteducacioqualitatdevida@udl.cat>]), with a copy to the Secretariat of the Department of Nursing and Physiotherapy (dif.secretaria@udl.cat [<mailto:dif.secretaria@udl.cat>]).

The application period opens on 10 June 2026 and closes on 15 September 2026, at 2:00 p.m.
